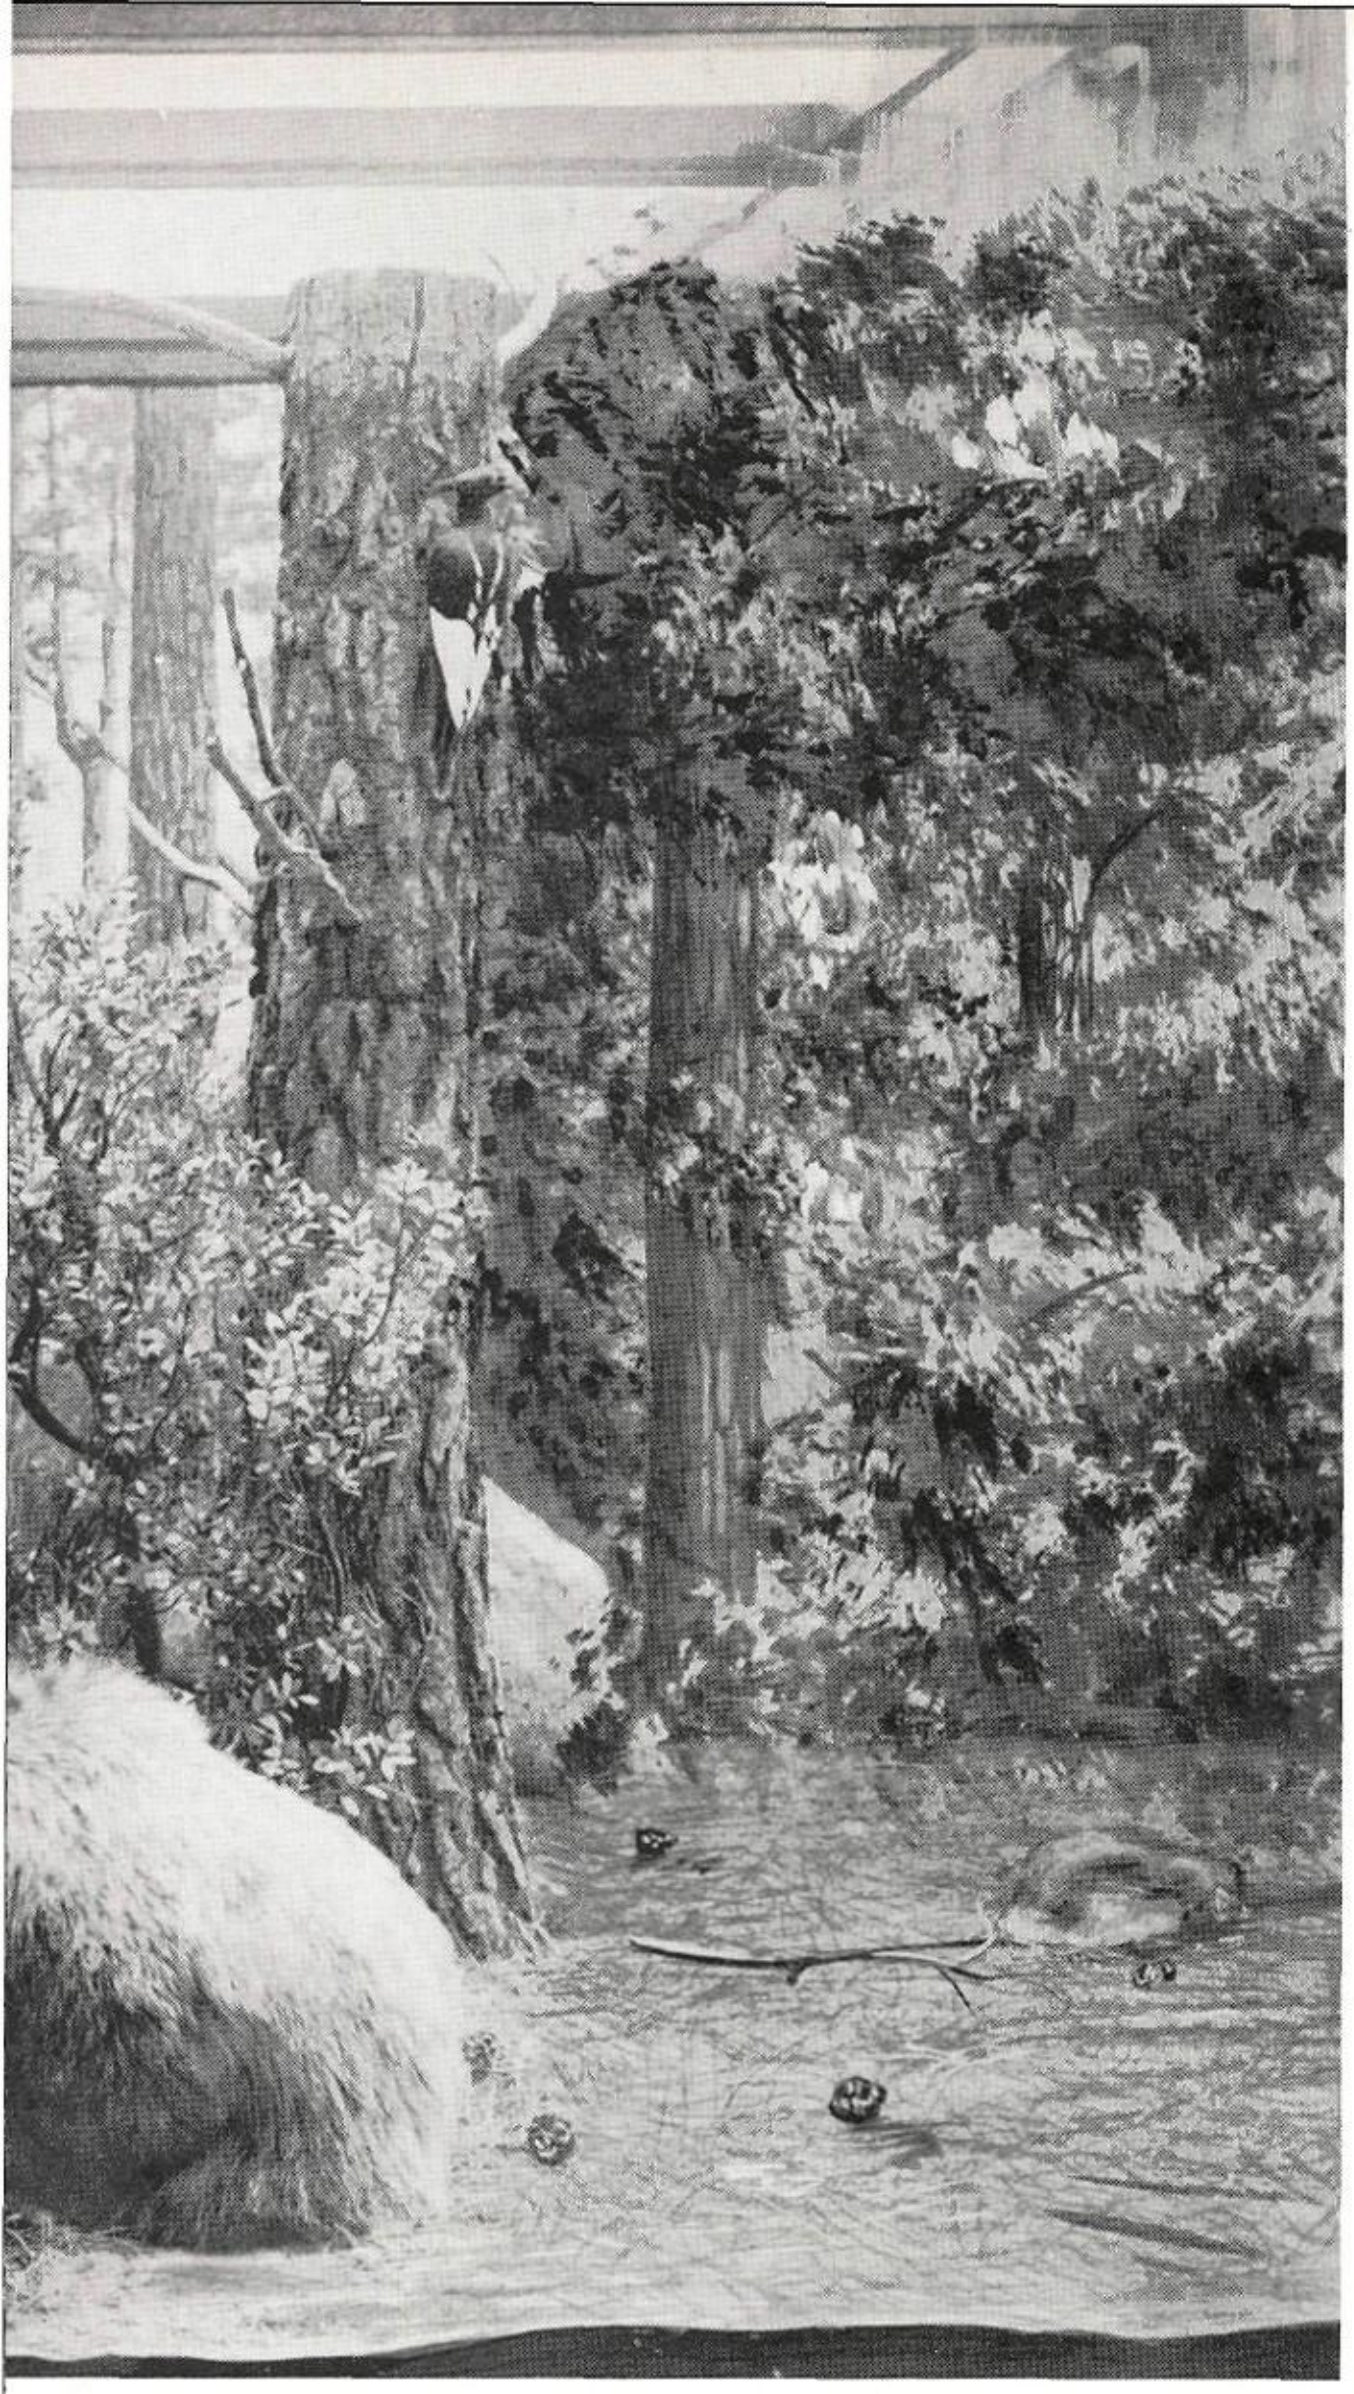
FOREWORD



The bear is a peaceful animal . . . but enticed to fight, it shows intruders that it is an able warrior. The fierce Golden Bear is our standard of battle and is known as a willing contender in all events. Therefore, we have chosen the BEAR as the theme for the 1956 DEN.

January 16, 1956

Dear Seniors:

I wish to thank you again for your fine cooperation, loyalty, and citizenship displayed during your years as a student in South Oak Cliff High School.

It has been a pleasure working with you in "SOC-HI." Your contributions in establishing our school as one of the very best in the land have been many.

The best wishes of the principal, faculty, and student body go with you. May all your dreams come true and may God bless each and everyone of you.

Sincerely yours,

Ben A. Matthews

MILITARY—where you learn to change the way you walk, the way you talk, and the way you wear your clothes. You learn to keep a straight face, stiff back, and tucked in chin. You work like a slave to polish your brass and shoes, keep a neat uniform, then you are mistaken for junior Einsteins and stuff is crammed down your noggin faster than you can blink your eyes. Bright and early comes the parade line every Tuesday morning at 0800. You march until your legs are lead weights and then stand at attention until you would give anything to be able to twitch your left eyebrow without getting a cut. The officers come next, them with their hawk eyes and all mighty ways. Even the mildest one of them makes Simon Legree look like your sweet old great aunt Martha. This goes on all year and you are bucking for rank. Sometimes you feel that it is all in vain but in the end you get your rank, the regiment gets the honor star, and you decide all the work wasn't so bad after all.

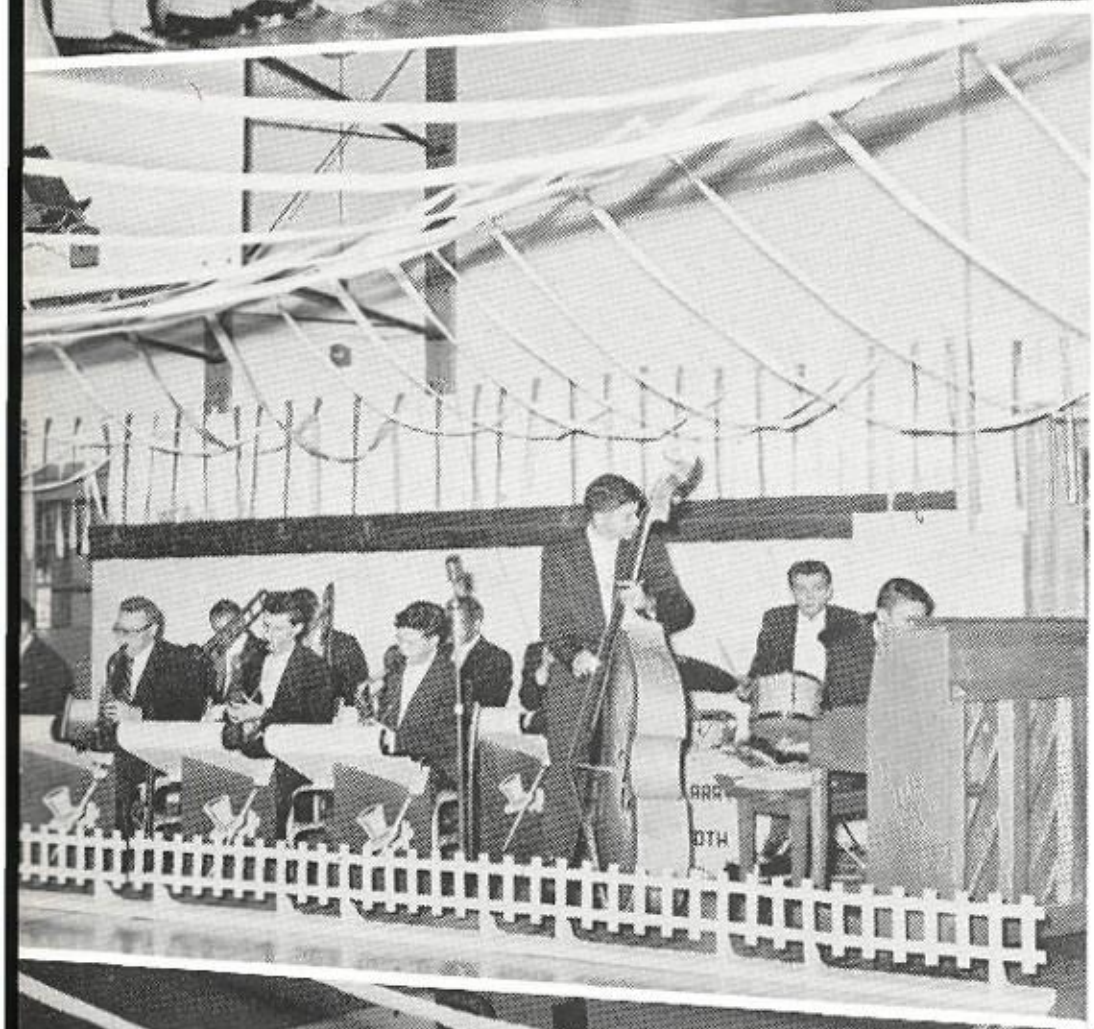
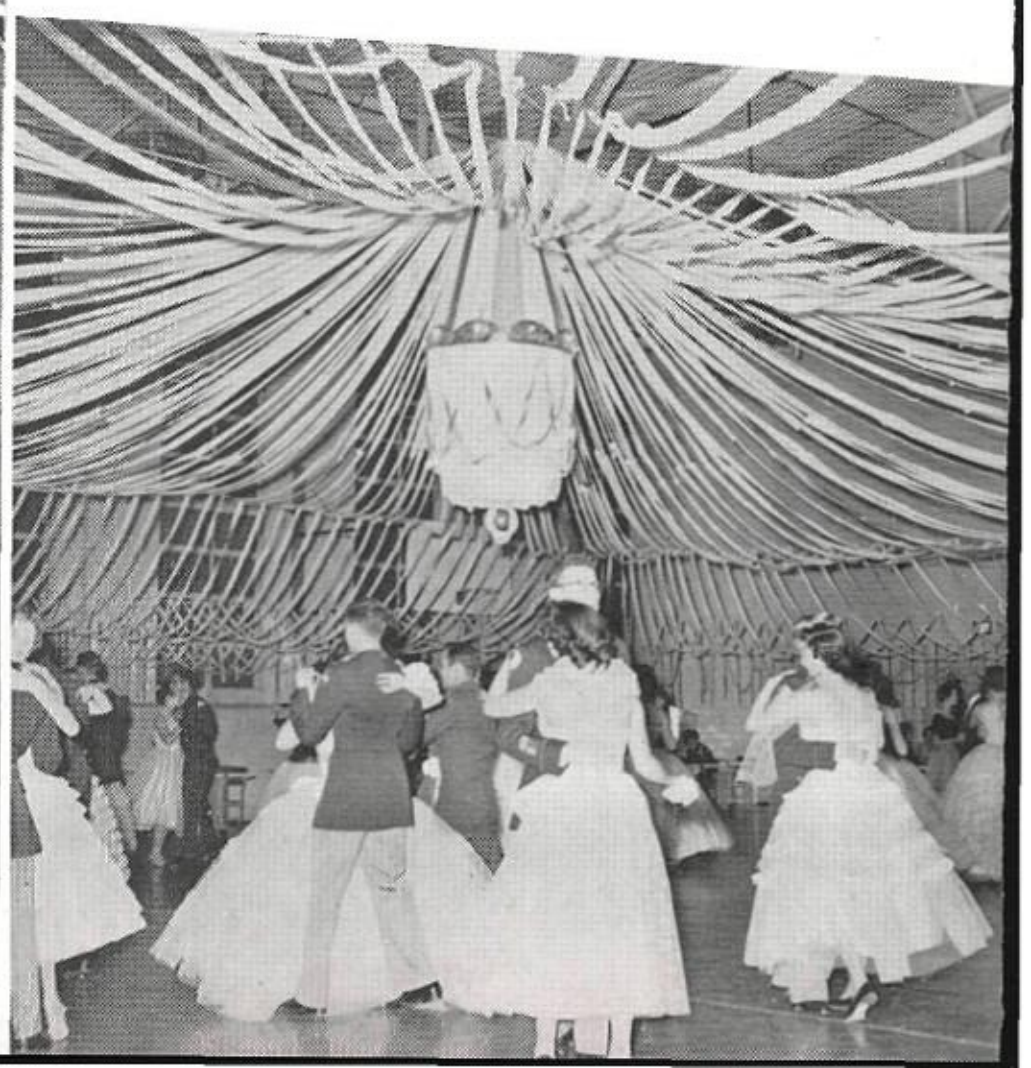
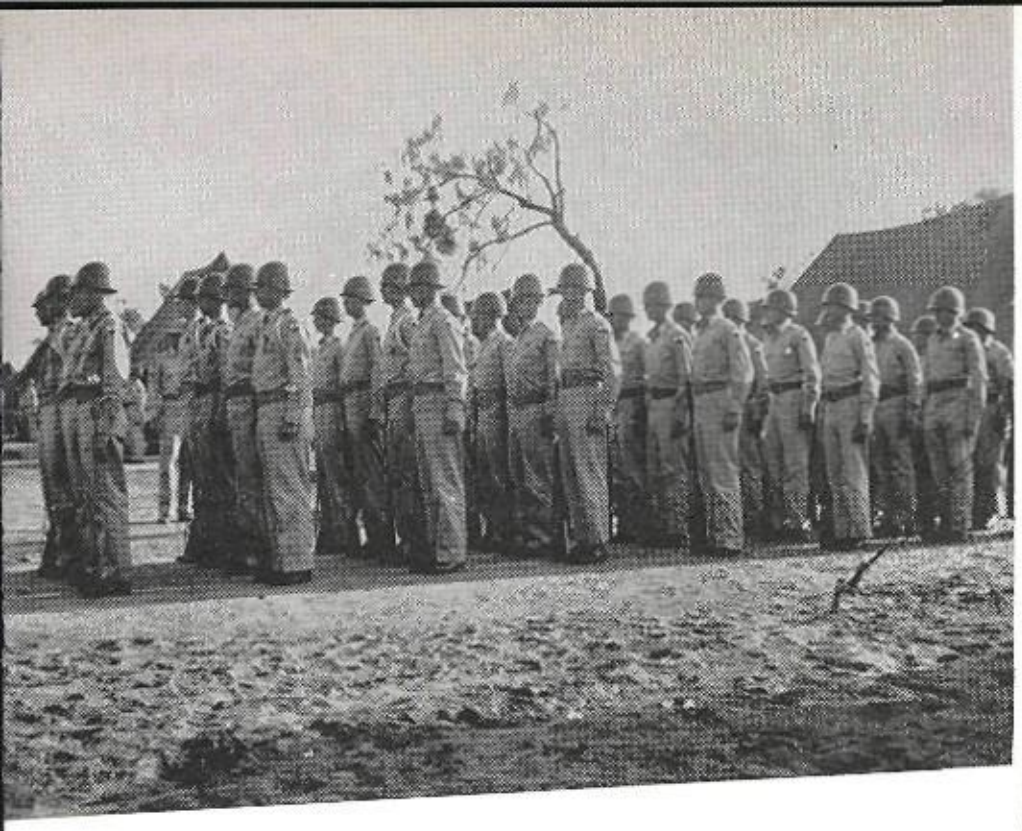
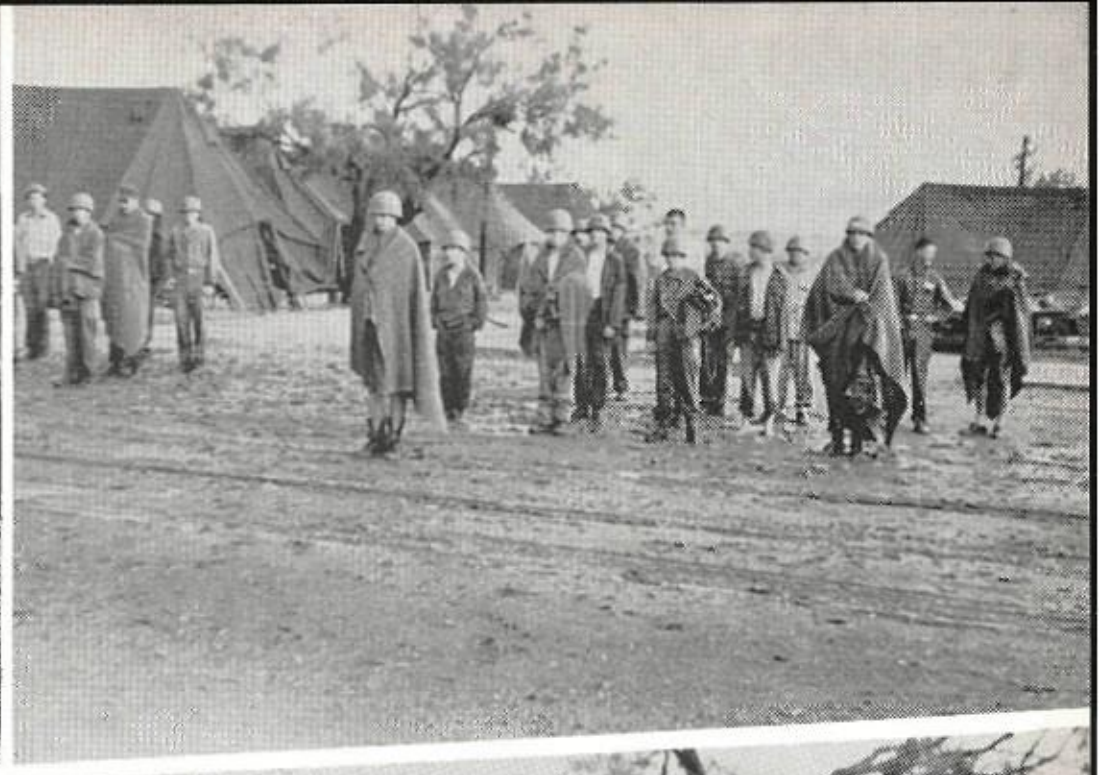
REGIMENTAL BALL

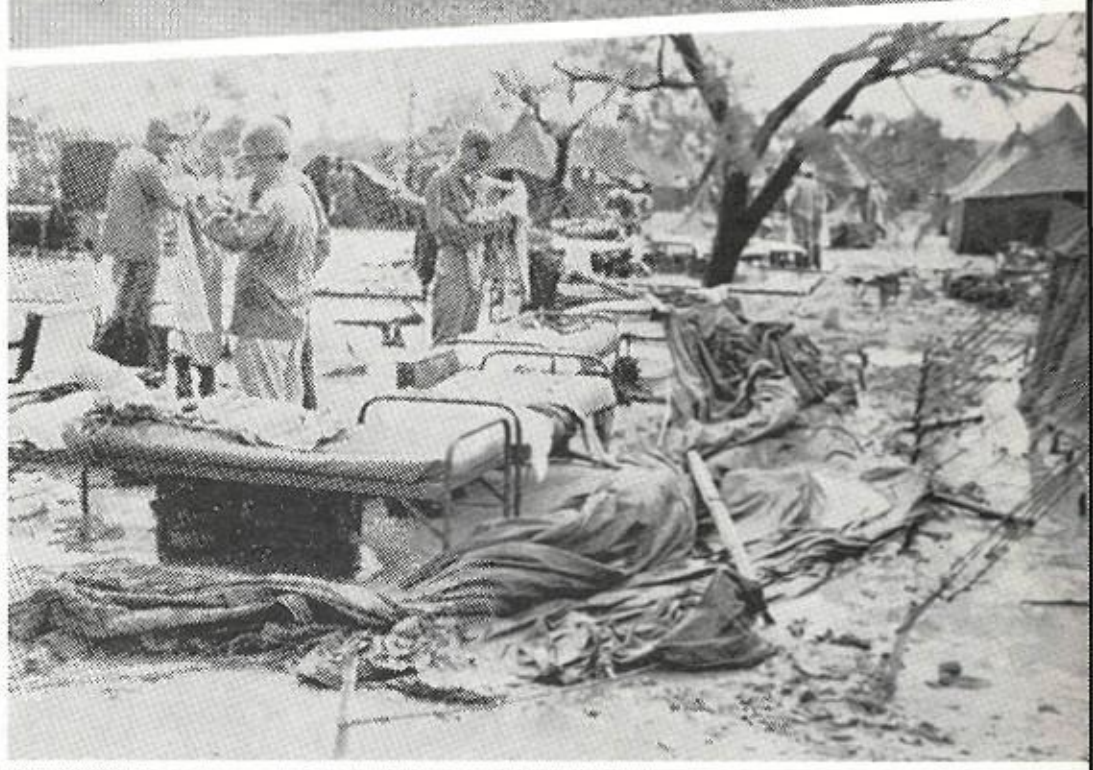
Counterclockwise: Regimental Commander Charles Copus and Regimental Queen Jeanette Jones . . . "Where's Haggard?" . . . A professional musical aggregation coalesced for the advancement of tired aching feet, called the "Hi Hats" . . . "Are they yawning or singing?" . . . "Boy! Gym class dances were never like this!"











CAMP DALLAS

Clockwise: "Ten-Shun" . . . These are the new ROTC uniforms? . . . Nothing is done halfway in Texas! . . . "Come on in, the water's fine. Glub. Glub." . . . Preparing for the Passing Parade . . . "What's on the menu for today, Hag?"

Willy (Charles Hukill) meets his inner-self (Charles Griffin)

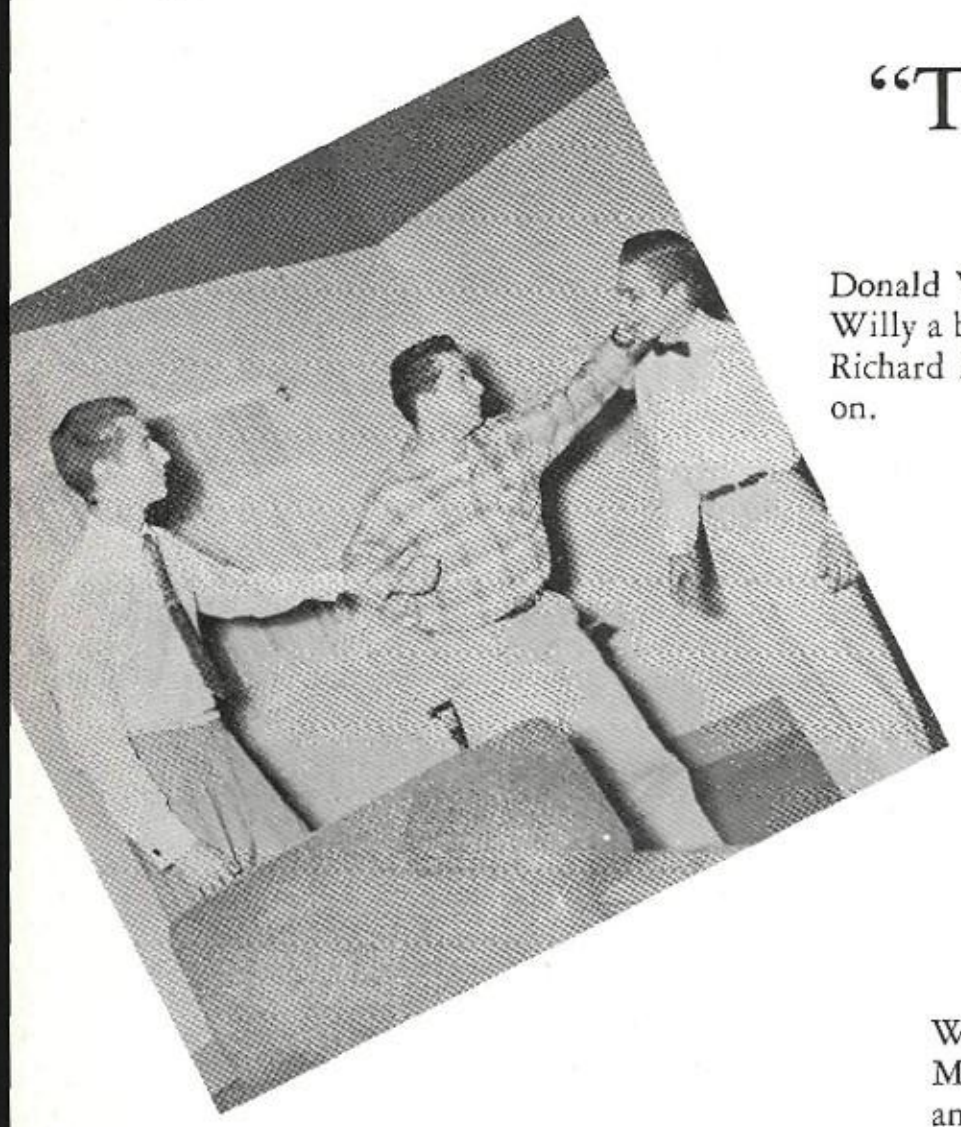
Aunts, (Jane Jenkins, Lynn Burris, and Mary Latimer) aid Willy.

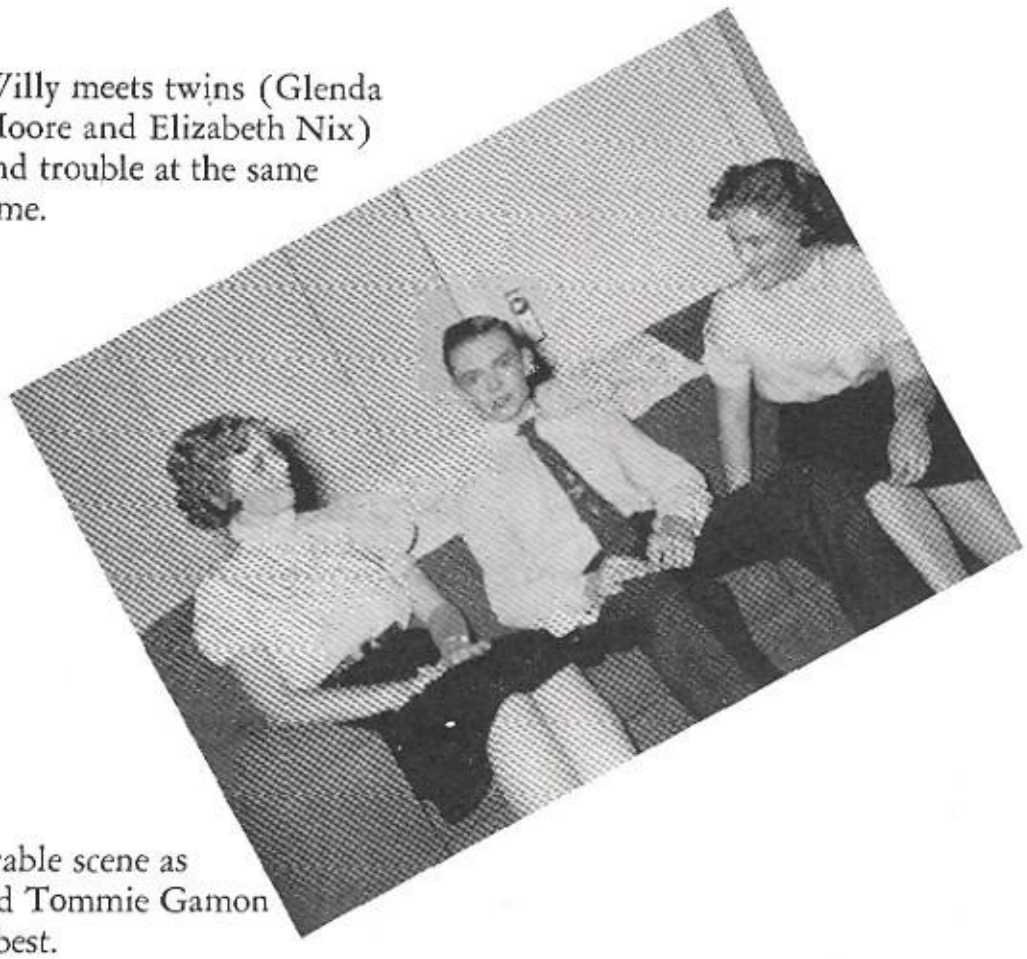
"THE INNER WILLY"



Donald Weaver gives Willy a bad time as Richard McIntyre looks on.

JANUARY

Willy meets twins (Glenda Moore and Elizabeth Nix) and trouble at the same time.



A memorable scene as Willy and Tommie Gamon act their best.

La Juan Feemster, the Student Director and Mr. Kendrick look over the program.
